"From the Pastor's Desk"

Dear St. Anthony Parish Family:

Last week we introduced the campaign we are beginning for endowing our St. Anthony Schools: Securing our Future. This campaign is in conjunction with campaigns which every parish in the diocese is undertaking. We have identified that the time and circumstances are right for us to focus on building up the St. Anthony Educational Trust. This trust was begun in 1995 and has never had a public campaign. Over the years, gifts and bequests have offered more than $3.5 Million to assist in the mission of our schools. We believe that the time is right now, based upon our growth and our sturdy parish situation, to make a bold move to secure the possibility of Catholic education for all of our parish who wish to utilize it. Many of you have already been contacted to make a gift, whose totals we wish to raise in excess of $5.5 Million over a five-year pledge. I cannot put it more succinctly or sincerely than this: Only by sacrifices have our schools thrived to be the blessing they are. Only by our sacrifices now can we ensure that the sacrifices future families want to make for Catholic education can be met.

To properly inform you and invite you to participate in this campaign, you will be offered a brief explanation of the campaign at all of the Masses next weekend, April 20 and 21. After Mass, you will be invited to come over to the Parish Hall and get further information and materials at a short presentation, where refreshments will be provided, and you may ask questions of me or any of the members of the campaign leadership team. I hope you will plan on attending.

Have a blessed week and enjoy the new life of Spring!

Fr. Peter Harman

NATIONAL
Eucharistic Congress

Attend the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage coming to cities in our diocese – You are invited to a once-in-a-lifetime experience being called “our national Emmaus moment,” after the biblical passage in which Jesus walked with two of his disciples along the road to Emmaus. The National Eucharistic Pilgrimage is an unprecedented pilgrimage in which Catholics will pray and publicly follow Jesus in their cities through Eucharistic processions. The Diocese of Springfield in Illinois is excited to be included in one of the national routes July 8-12. Cities include Collinsville, Alton, Quincy, Girard, Springfield, Effingham, and Teutopolis. Go to dio.org/procession to learn more and register!

Attend the National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis July 17-21 – This summer, join tens of thousands of passionate Catholics who will travel from every corner of the U.S. to experience the healing power of Jesus Christ, present in the holy Eucharist at the National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis. Soak in the Presence of Jesus alongside people of all walks of life – a vivid image of the universal Church. You will participate in beautiful liturgies, lifting your voice in prayer alongside world-class musicians, hear from the most influential Catholic speakers of our day, and make history as part of the first National Eucharistic Congress in nearly 100 years. This is the beginning of a new chapter of faith in America. Will you be there? Register at eucharisticcongress.org.

Very limited National Eucharistic Congress tickets available for nearly half price - The Diocese of Springfield in Illinois has pre-purchased weeklong passes to the National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis this July at a discounted rate, and we'd like to offer the opportunity to the people of our diocese.

Passes are $200 (a savings of $160) and can be purchased at <https://secure.acceptiva.com/?cst=XebMkt>. Confirmation of this purchase will come in an email in which you will receive a payment code. After you receive that payment code, you will then need to register for the Eucharistic Congress itself by going here: <https://www.eucharisticcongress.org/register>. When checking out after clicking a “full event pass,” you will then put in your code during the payment option so the price becomes $0. Lodging, meals, and travel will need to be booked and paid for separately.

Blue Sunday takes place each year on the last day of April, which is Child Abuse Prevention Month. This year Blue Sunday will be recognized on Sunday, April 28th.

Since 1983, the U.S. has recognized Blue Sunday as a "National Day of Prayer for Children Who Have Been Abused and Those Who Rescue Them." Our mission of CASA of Effingham County is to train and support community citizens that provide best interest advocacy to children and youth who have experienced abuse and neglect and are now in juvenile court here in Effingham County. Currently 94 children are in foster care from Effingham County-our program has 35 volunteers advocating for 68 of the 94 children right now.

We need local community members from all walks of life to pray and support the children and families we serve, our volunteers, the judges we report to, and our staff and board. We'd like to invite you and your faith community to join us in creating time to pray for children and families this coming Blue Sunday, April 28th. For more information about Blue Sunday and to access free resources go to www.bluesunday.org.
