Matthew 5:7

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

101 E Virginia Ave, Effingham, IL 62401 217-347-7129 www.stanthony.com

“From the Pastor’s Desk”

Dear St. Anthony Parish Family:

I came across a great short article by Matthew Petrussek, who directs the Word on Fire Apostolate. I think in this election season and the noise around it, it is a helpful grounding point for what we desire to bring about: Democracy is a deceptively simple idea. It’s something we have good reason to fight for and defend. Yet it’s also riddled with complexity. For example, if the definition of democracy is simply “power to the people,” then what do we do when the people fundamentally disagree? If the answer is that the majority gets to call the shots, then what does that mean for the minority. Do they have any voice?

At a deeper level, what is the relationship between majority support for law and that law, in fact, being just? For example, substantial majorities enshrine the right to abortion in their state constitutions. Recall that the majority in the United States also supported slavery. In short, democracy is more complex.

It would seem that there must then be values which give democracy its value. Our Church holds that there are three values which promote as well as guard democracy: A) inherent human dignity, B) fundamental human equality and C) the common good. Without these three values in place, democracy (as established in our Constitution) cannot best serve its people or survive for long. This is a crucial acknowledgement that democracy is, then, at the service of something greater, and not only for its own existence. The founders of our nation recognized this in a way which sadly seems to be lost on many today.

Next week I will develop this with some points which help us see the mindfulness of God present in our nation’s founding documents. I pray you have a blessed week.

Fr. Peter Harman
