“From the Pastor’s Desk”

Dear St. Anthony Parish Family:

On Saturday November 16, St. Anthony hosted a Pre-Cana workshop for couples preparing for Marriage. We had a great crowd of nearly 30 couples, which is a very encouraging sign! I am grateful to our parishioners and friends who assisted with the day for giving up their Saturday and for their generous witness to the faith: Deacon Joe Emmerich, Paige and Sean Hussey, Bobbi and Jeff Brunoehler, Kelly and Christo Schultz, Brian and Mandy Henning, Kate Pruemmer, April and Alex Ritz and Deacon Candidate Jessie Davis. Thanks much for a great day.

How do we examine the times in which we live? What do we make of so much civil discord and the decline of our culture in so many ways from the light of the Gospel? We hear Jesus say to his disciples: "In those days after that tribulation the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken." That’s quite a fearful image. But we are not called to worry and wring our hands! We are challenged not to be preoccupied with prediction and fear. He says, "But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father." He reassures, “Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.”

We are then challenged by the Master to be faithful above all things. Faithful to our relationship with him, faithful to our vocations and responsibilities, and then not to fear. While we are active in the world to witness to good, to call ourselves and others to good, we also trust that if we prioritize our energy upon the things of God, we shall have nothing to fear.

Fr. Peter Harman

Grief Support Meetings
