"From the Pastor's Desk"

Dear St. Anthony Parish Family:

I hope your Thanksgiving celebrations this week are a time of grace and peace, recalling God's abundant blessings and His promise to sustain us always. I am grateful for our dedicated staff, faculty, and parish family, and for the very good year this has been for St. Anthony. I will be going to Quincy on Thanksgiving and Friday to enjoy the time with my family. Please consider starting your day by giving thanks to God with us at the 9:00am Mass.

This week's feast of Christ the King is a title of Jesus referring to the Kingdom of God where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Catholics consider the kingly office of Christ to be one of the threefold offices: Christ is a prophet, priest, and king. In the Gospel of Luke, the angel Gabriel proclaims to Mary, "Behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall name him Jesus. He will be great and will be called Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give him the throne of David his father, and he will rule over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end." The First Epistle to Timothy (6:14-15) explicitly applies the phrase of "king of kings and lord of lords" adapting the Pentateuch's declaration, for the Lord your God is the God of gods and the Lord of lords, to Jesus Christ. In the Book of Revelation it is declared that the Lamb is "King of kings, and Lord of lords".

Pope Pius XI's first encyclical was Ubi arcano Dei consilio of December 1922. Writing in the aftermath of World War I, Pius noted that while there had been a cessation of hostilities, there was no true peace. He deplored the rise of class divisions and unbridled nationalism, and held that true peace can only be found under the Kingship of Christ as "Prince of Peace". "For Jesus Christ reigns over the minds of individuals by his teachings, in their hearts by His love, in each one's life by living according to His law and imitating His example." The Feast of Christ the King was instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1925. The General Roman Calendar of 1969 moved its observance in the Roman Rite to the last Sunday of Ordinary Time, the final Sunday of the liturgical year.

We hope to see you take advantage of some part of our Advent Discipleship Series which begins next week, Wednesday, December 4, with Mass at 5:15 p.m. followed by a brief catechetical session in the Parish Hall. We will have two more, Wednesday, December 11 and Monday, December 16. These have been well-attended in recent years as a way to spiritually prepare for Advent and Christmas.

Have a blessed week!

Fr. Peter Harman
