“From the Pastor’s Desk”

Dear St. Anthony Parish Family:

Next week, June 7th is Corpus Christi, the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ, our commemoration of the gift of the Holy Eucharist for and in the Church. Please plan to spend some of the afternoon in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament following the 11:00 a.m. Mass and join for Solemn Evening prayer with Benediction at 4:00 p.m. There are sign up sheets for adoration times at the West and South entrances to Church. Many have come to enjoy the praying of the Divine Office with Benediction in years past, so please join us at 4:00 p.m.

We welcome Mr. Steven Kehoe to St. Anthony this week for his summer seminarian parish internship. Please be sure to greet him after Masses next weekend.

I appreciate the members of the St. Anthony Cemetery Board being present to answer questions after Masses last weekend regarding our expansion project at the cemetery. I am grateful for their assistance in caring for the cemetery. More than a few of you commented to me that you were glad we are starting this project now so that we will not be “in a pinch” when the time comes to need the expansion. I am moved by the way that Effingham families care for the graves of their loved ones with devotion. Your generosity to this project ensures that they will continue to be cared for with respect. It also means that you yourself will likely be cared for with respect in the future as well. Thank you for your participation and generosity.

This week is our annual clergy retreat for diocesan priests. Therefore, we will fill the weekday Masses this week by offering the 6:30 a.m. here at St. Anthony each day Monday through Friday, but not the 8:30 a.m. Mass.

Have a blessed week!

Fr. Peter Harman

Parish Office Summer Hours on Fridays
