"From the Pastor's Desk"

Dear St. Anthony Parish Family:

We look forward to the picnic next weekend. Let's pray for good weather, a successful turnout and a time of joy and fraternity! Thanks to all who plan, volunteer and donate to make it the great success that it is, especially to the chairs: Ashley Bierman, Ashely Ludwig, Becca Niebrugge, Mandy Henning, Jenny Kabbes and Amy Minor, and all who lead and organize a stand or game. We appreciate you!

St. Paul's words to us in our second reading today are always an inspiration to me. "Brothers and sisters: What will separate us from the love of Christ? Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or the sword? No, in all these things we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord."

St. Paul's list is a pretty dramatic one! And when I feel stressed or worried, which we all do from time to time, I find that repeating these words brings me peace. It reminds me that God has never failed to provide for me, bless me, and see me through whatever has come my way. Nothing that I face is greater than God's love and nothing can separate me from that love. Don't we all need to be reminded of that every now and again? May you have peace in what you face, knowing that Christ conquers all things in you! Sometimes I have to get out of my own way, but Christ conquers even what I do to myself! Perhaps you can remind yourself of this, and be a reminder to someone else who needs this peace.

Have a blessed week!

Fr. Peter Harman

Have you or someone you know been thinking about becoming Catholic? A new session of Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA) will begin on Sunday, September 13. Perhaps you, someone in your family, or a friend or co-worker have been thinking about the Catholic faith and would like to learn more. We invite you to call the parish office at 217-347-7129 for more information.

We also encourage all parishioners to pray for those who are being called to learn more about the Catholic faith. Each prayer can be a lever to prompt others to listen to a personal call to deepen and experience their faith journey. If you know of someone who may need asking, call the parish office so we may extend an invitation.

Even though it's Summertime, I'm looking for a few good women or men, that are available on Tuesday and Thursday mornings from the 8:30am Children's Mass time, through 10:30am, once a month. After Mass, the appointed class will follow you out to your vehicle to load all their awesome donations. The following Monday morning, you would deliver our parishioners donations collected in the foyer. For those who have the time to volunteer to a worthy cause, it's fun and fulfilling.

There is some heavy lifting involved, and a vehicle is needed that can hold the large contributions each day. If interested, you can shadow one of us, it's a quick "get the hang of it," labor of love. If your truly interested and available Tuesday, Thursday, and Monday mornings once a month, contact me, (217-273-9993) and we will meet to go over things. Typically you would be scheduled for 3 to 4 months of the school year. Thank You!
