"From the Pastor's Desk"

Dear St. Anthony Parish Family:

A reminder to all who have served in the choirs, ensemble or as cantors, Mr. Jonathan Myers and I will have a brief informational meeting to put together a good plan for music for the coming seasons of Advent and Christmas. We will offer that gathering on Wednesday, November 11 at 7 p.m. in the parish hall.

On Saturday evening, November 28, we will offer the sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick after the 4:30 p.m. Mass. This sacrament is for all of those who are over the age of reason (7 years) who are experiencing significant illness or weakness, or those who are advanced in age. One can be anointed more than one time, even for the same illness, if the condition remains, as well as any who will be undergoing a serious medical procedure or surgery. Those wishing to receive the sacrament are asked to wait briefly for Mass to conclude and we will begin the short service as soon as all are in place.

For three Wednesdays of Advent this year, Wednesday, December 2, 9, and 16, I will be offering a brief class on how to pray the Liturgy of the Hours, or the Divine Office. We will then pray Evening Prayer together. This form of prayer, which all priests, deacons and religious pray, is a way to sanctify the day at different times based on praying the psalms and other canticles and sections of Sacred Scripture. All of the laity are also encouraged to pray this as part of their daily prayer. We will begin at 5:30 p.m. in the Church on these 3 Wednesdays. We will take no more than 30-35 minutes each night. We do ask that you call the office and register so that we can have the correct number of handouts for each person. I hope you will consider joining us.

Fr. Peter Harman

Choir/Cantor Meeting - Fr. Harman and Jonathan Myers will lead an informational meeting with all of those who have served in the past and currently as cantors and members of our choir or ensemble so as to put together a good plan for the coming seasons of Advent and Christmas. We will offer that gathering on Wednesday, November 11 at 7 p.m. in the parish hall. Please plan to join us if you are interested in participating and finding out more information.

Please pray for Restoration of Religious Liberty, those who are ill, those in hospitals and nursing homes, those recovering from surgery, all those serving our country, and also for:

THE DIVINE SAVING PRECEPTS

OBLIGATIONS OF THE FAITHFUL

CCC §2037 & §2041

The 5 precepts of the church guarantee the very necessary minimum the faithful are obliged to observe liturgically; as such, you have a right to know them. Fulfilled, these saving precepts purify judgment and, with grace, heal wounded human reason.

CCC §2042-§2043

| Precepts | Questions for the Faithful |
|---|---|
| 1 "You shall attend Mass on Sundays and on holy days of obligation and rest from servile labor." | Do I regularly make it to mass on Sunday? Do I take time to rest or do I needlessly work or make burdensome plans? |
| 2 "You shall confess your sins at least once a year." | Have I made it to confession recently, especially after seriously sinning? |
| 3 "You shall receive the sacrament of the Eucharist at least during the Easter season." | Do I receive the Eucharist regularly and with devotion? |
| 4 "You shall observe the days of fasting and abstinence established by the Church." | Do I abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, Lenten Fridays, and Good Friday? Do I fast? |
| 5 "You shall help to provide for the needs of the Church." | Do I tithe regularly? Does my donation reflect my ability to give? |

Precept 2 - Reconciliation

This second precept ensures preparation for the Eucharist by the reception of the sacrament of reconciliation, which continues Baptism's work of conversion and forgiveness.

CCC §2042

Reconciliation

"You shall confess your sins at least once a year."

As the passions throw us like a violent sea from sin to sin, the sea-calmer, Jesus, stands firm atop the waves. Even as we fall into the depths of these chaotic waters, into venial or mortal sin, Christ offers us his hand in the confessional booth. This is the place we go, not to be condemned or judged, but to receive forgiveness. It can be humbling to admit when we have sunk into depths that require us to be saved yet it is precisely in these moments where many learn most of the love of God, of our fallen nature, and of our divine dependence. Do not be afraid. Reconciliation, like baptism, will pull you from the chaotic waters that wash over you, leaving you a new creation.

Examination of Conscience

To confess, we must first know our sin. The practice of examining our conscience is like carrying a lantern through our memories, looking for our failures, and gathering them for the cleaning waters of confession. It is best done with scripture or a prepared list. Common scriptures used include the Ten Commandments, the Gospels, and apostolic letters. Examinations of conscience can also be found online or at the front of church.

> The reception of this sacrament ought to be prepared for by an examination of conscience made in the light of the Word of God.
>
> CCC §1454

Founded in the Church & Scripture

Though different in practice, the sacrament of penance has remained substantially the same down the centuries. From rare public confessions to the eastern monastic inspired form of regular private penance we practice today, the sacrament of reconciliation has been maintained.

> "If we confess our sins, he who is faithful and just will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness."
>
> 1 John 1:9

Just as the practice of the church testifies to this sacrament so too do the scriptures. The old and new testaments speaks of sinners confessing their sins and letters of the new testament exhort us to do the same. James describes it like this:

> "Confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The prayer of a righteous man has great power in its effects."
>
> James 5:16

Other references: (Matt 3:6) (Mark 1:5) (Luke 18:13) (Luke 15:18-21) (Acts 19:18) (Neh 9:2-3) (Prov 28:13)
